

FAQS FOR THE 3RD NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON SOCIETAL RESILIENCE, 10-11 MARCH 2025

FAQs last updated: 16 December 2024

CONTENT OF THE CONFERENCE

What is the conference about?

Societal resilience to disruption. The conference aims to support those who work with communities on resilience to disruptions, and on enhancing the capabilities in communities through building local resilience capability.

What was the content of previous NCSR+ conferences?

The following describe past conferences:

- 1st National Conference on Societal Resilience in March 2023:
 - Video highlights
 - National Briefing on Societal Resilience (B52)
- 2nd National Conference on Societal Resilience in March 2024:
 - Conference programme
 - Video highlights
 - National Briefing on Societal Resilience (B54)

It's held at a university – is the content very theoretical?

The conference is for practitioners from local government, emergency services, voluntary sector, national government. We are delighted that some academics attend to learn more about practice.

ATTENDEES

Who attends the conference?

In March 2024, roughly, 50% of the 195 registrations were from local government (including emergency services / Local Resilience Forums); 35% were from the voluntary and community sector; 5% were from central government departments; 5% were from academia; 5% from business.

How many people will attend the conference?

At the conference in March 2023 there were 140 attendees, and in March 2024 there were 170 attendees.

Is this an International conference?

In March 2024, delegates came from all 4 nations of the UK as well as from 3 other countries: Bangladesh, Nigeria, The Netherlands.

BOOKING CONFERENCE TICKETS

How much is a conference ticket?

The regular ticket rate is £220.00 (including networking dinner). A limited number of these tickets remain.

Conference-only regular rate tickets (£175, without networking dinner) are now available.

All tickets give entry for both days. We do not offer a one-day ticket. Tickets can only be booked via the online store at this link.

When do ticket registrations close?

Registration will close in February 2025 or sooner should our attendance limit be reached.

Can I have a free ticket?

Unfortunately, we can't offer free tickets for this event. We run many free NCSR+ events online throughout the year including our webinar series which is available to watch here.

Can I get a refund if I am unable to attend?

Registrations are non-refundable, but they are transferrable to another delegate.

Do I need to book the conference dinner in advance?

Yes, it is ticket only. Last year's dinner sold out, so we recommend booking early if you intend on joining us. The conference dinner will be on a private floor in Hyatt Regency Manchester. Dress code is casual.

MORE INFORMATION

Where can I get more information about the conference?

A dedicated conference webpage has been created at this link. Also connect with us on the NCSR+ LinkedIn page.

Who can I email to get more information?

We are a small team of three who are organising this in addition to our day jobs.

Unfortunately, we are unable to regularly reply to individual queries that are already covered by these FAQs. Instead, so that everyone can get the information, we'll regularly update these FAQs.

Who is organising the conference?

The National Consortium for Societal Resilience [UK+]. Find out more about our work via our webpage.
