Customised Solutions at Alliance Manchester Business School

Who are we?

Alliance Manchester Business School (AMBS), part of The University of Manchester, was established in 1965 as one of the UK's first two business schools.

Today, we are the UK's largest campus-based business and management school, providing industry-focused education to undergraduates, postgraduates, and professionals.

The school has a global reach with centres in Manchester, Dubai, Hong Kong, Shanghai, and Singapore. In 2021, the Research Excellence Framework (REF) ranked our school 3rd in the UK for research power – the school's influential research impacts business locally, nationally, and internationally.

World-leading business school

The University of Manchester is home to the first modern computer, the first scientists to isolate graphene and 25 Nobel Prize winners.

Over 50 years' experience

Over 50 years' experience delivering Executive Education around the world.

Delivering business impact

Over the past 13 years, nearly 25,000 delegates and their employers have reaped the rewards of our rigorous and challenging programmes.

High-quality teaching

One of only a few business schools in the world to be recognised by all three international business schools and MBA-accrediting bodies.

Exceptional learning environment

With a multi-million-pound investment in our building and a purpose-built Executive Education Centre, our environment matches the high standard of our teaching.

World-renowned partners

We are proud to work with many clients from across the world.

Impact case study: Audi LEAD Programme

Audi and AMBS worked in partnership to design and deliver the Audi LEAD Programme; an innovative leadership excellence and development programme for Audi dealer networks across the UK.

The bespoke programme was created to tackle real issues faced by Audi and equipped leadership teams across the Audi network with the skills to effectively manage industry change, innovate, and lead others so that they remain competitive in the market.

The EFMD Excellence in Practice Awards recognise outstanding and impactful client-supplier partnerships in the domains of Leadership, Professional, Talent, and Organisational Development.

STEVE CAITLIN
Head of Sales, Audi UK

"The leadership skills that participants have been equipped with through this course have been really practical and have meant that we've seen some really positive results really quickly".
