A maximum of 28 days in-person attendance is available on the Manchester Global MBA depending on which electives are selected. Some students will choose to reduce the face-to-face aspect of the MBA by taking some classes virtually. In addition to the commitment required above, there will also be some virtual mandatory elements, for example:

- > Business & Accounting: Three, 3 hour live virtual workshops at different times of the term.
- > Strategy & Competition part A: Group presentations will take place virtually.
- > Developing Managerial & Career Success: Two consecutive virtual workshop days, with a third to follow later in the term.
