Developing a recovery framework

Our project team takes a systems approach to support resilience partners as they design strategies for recovery and renewal from COVID-19 that will build resilience.

1 new ISO 22393 for recovery from COVID-19

1,200+ hours of meetings with government response, recovery and renewal groups

55+ webinars and workshops organised

Expert insights from governments, the UN, WHO, WEF, The World Bank and more

17 academics from a wide range of disciplines

120+ interviews with a global community of experts

12 research projects

Database of lessons on recovery and renewal

480+ international lessons on recovery and renewal from...

95+ countries worldwide

39 issues each including 4 briefings

42 case studies

40 impactful ‘think pieces’

RECOVERY RENEWAL RESILIENCE

Volunteers

Recovery planning

Renewal initiatives

Community resilience

Entrepreneurial business

Disaster reparations

Minorities and refugees

Resilient healthcare

Tourism heritage

Partnership working

Resilience capability

The Manchester Briefing

Our project team produces ‘The Manchester Briefing on COVID-19’, a fortnightly document that brings together international lessons inspiring thinking on recovery and renewal from COVID-19.

ambs.ac.uk/covidrecovery

CanadA

USA

Chile

Scotland

England

Palestine

Manchester

The University of Manchester

Alliance Manchester Business School

Economic

and Social

Research Council

hcri

54,000+
global audience from local governments

4,000+
cities

20+global distribution partners

The Manchester Briefing

July 2021