What will it cost?

Visas

Please visit the appropriate country websites for visa costs.

In order to obtain a visa, students going to some destinations may be required to provide evidence of sufficient financial support during their stay.

Travel

Return air fares can be expensive when travelling to Australia, New Zealand, Hong Kong and Singapore. Also consider any other travel costs during the exchange period.

Insurance

The University's student travel insurance policy provides cover for students undertaking study abroad as part of their course. Some of our partner institutions may also require you to purchase additional compulsory health insurance.

Tuition fees

Home/EU students studying abroad for the full 2025-6 academic year will pay £1,385. Additional support is available to UK students from low-income households as follows:

Household income	Cash bursary
Up to £25,000	£2,000
£25,001 - £35,000	£1,000

International students studying abroad for the full 2025-6 academic year will pay 20% of the standard international tuition fee.

Students do not pay academic tuition fees to the exchange partner.

N.B. The above information is subject to confirmation each academic year.

Accommodation

Accommodation costs vary according to country, university and whether you opt for private accommodation. Also consider the cost of housing during vacation periods and consider the current exchange rate. Accommodation offered can often be in a shared room.

Other costs to consider

- Travel costs can vary hugely between partner institutions
- Food and entertainment
- Books, equipment and supplies
- Possible administration fee

Many institutions provide a breakdown of approximate living costs for the year on their websites.

Funding your year abroad

Some destinations offer scholarships which are usually based on academic merit.

Students who live in England should visit www.gov.uk/travel-grants-students-england for information about travel grants. You may be eligible for financial support to help cover the cost of up to three return flights as well as medical insurance and travel visas.

N.B. This information is correct at the time of publishing (October 2024) – for the most up-to-date information please see our website. Availability of places at exchange partners dependent on current balances and contract renewals.
