BSc (Hons) International Management with American Business Studies

Study abroad in the US or Canada

Joshua Tree National Park, California

Introduction

Study BSc (Hons) International Management with American Business Studies and choose from a wide range of exchange partners across the US and Canada.

You'll spend your third year abroad studying at your chosen partner institution* before returning to Manchester for your final year.

Our students have also secured summer internships in the UK and abroad to further enhance their employability. So, you could study at two world-class institutions, benefit from extensive travel opportunities and gain added work experience. There'll be no stopping you after graduation.

*You will rank your preferred exchange destinations and submit this alongside a personal statement outlining what you hope to gain personally and academically from your year abroad. This is then considered alongside your first-year marks to determine where you will study.

What will it cost?

Visas

Please visit the appropriate country websites for visa costs.

In order to obtain a visa, students going to the US must provide evidence of sufficient financial support during their stay. The amount required can range from $9,000-25,000 USD and will vary between institutions. For Canada, this is generally in the region of $10,000 CAN.

Travel

Return air fares to the US and Canada will vary but you should expect to pay a minimum of £400 for a transatlantic flight and much more at peak times. Also consider any other travel costs during the exchange period.

Insurance

The University's student travel insurance policy provides cover for students undertaking study abroad as part of their course. Some of our partner institutions may also require you to purchase additional compulsory health insurance. This can vary from £200-2000.

Tuition fees

Home/EU students studying abroad for the full 2020-21 academic year will pay £1,350. Additional support is available to UK students from low-income households as follows:

Household income	Cash bursary
Up to £25,000	£2,000
£25,001 - £35,000	£1,000

International students studying abroad for the full 2020-21 academic year will pay 20% of the standard international tuition fee.

Students do not pay academic tuition fees to the exchange partner.

N.B. The above information is subject to confirmation each academic year.

Accommodation

Accommodation costs vary according to country, university and whether you opt for private accommodation. Also consider the cost of housing during vacation periods and consider the current exchange rate. Accommodation offered can often be in a shared room.

Other costs to consider

- Travel costs can vary hugely between partner institutions
- Food and entertainment
- Books, equipment and supplies
- Possible administration fee

Many institutions provide a breakdown of approximate living costs for the year on their websites.

Funding your year abroad

Some destinations offer scholarships which are usually based on academic merit.

Students who live in England should visit www.gov.uk/travel-grants-students-england for information about travel grants. You may be eligible for financial support to help cover the cost of up to three return flights as well as medical insurance and travel visas.

N.B. This information is correct at the time of going to print (April 2020) – for the most up-to-date information please see our website.

Availability of places at exchange partners dependent on current balances and contract renewals.
